

Report on National Webinar on 'MSME Sector and Migrant Labor Under Covid-19: The Recession and Reversion' organised by Department of Commerce on 15-7-20.

The department of Commerce of MVNJSR RVR College of Arts and Science organised a national webinar on "MSME Sector and Migrant Labor Under Covid-19: The Recession and Reversion" on 15th July 2020 through virtual platform due to Covid-19 pandemic.

In this pandemic period commerce department of MVNJSR RVR College of Arts and Science has been adopting innovative strategies and stood forefront in the shifting of virtual mode in this remote and rural ambience and organised national webinar on "MSME Sector and Migrant Labor Under Covid-19: The Recession and Reversion" through 'Zoom' virtual platform on 15-7-20 from 10 am to 1 pm. 160 participants were participated in the national webinar.

Mr. R. Srinivas as Convener, Dr. D. Srinivas as Co-convener of the national webinar.

In the beginning of the webinar Dr. D. Srinivas welcomed the resource persons and participants from various colleges across India. He conveyed the proceedings of the webinar and prime objective of the webinar.

The inaugural session of the webinar was started with prayer. Dr. S. Prabhakar, principal and chairman of the webinar expected this virtual conference fulfill its prime objects to bring the faculty of different corners of the country.

Sri M.V. Sathyanarayana Murthy, Secretary & Correspondent of the College and patron of the webinar extended his wishes to the participants.

Prof. A. Uttama Durga Devi, former professor, Ch. S. S. Thiruvannamalai College Eluru was the Keynote addressee for the webinar. In her presentation Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) are engines of economic growth, barometers of economic progress and prosperity in developed as well as emerging economies ensuring inclusivity and ensuring balanced regional growth.

Resource person of the First technical session prof. J. chandra prasad, former principal DNR college, Bhimavaram. In his presentation, he discussed "MSME Sector in the Storm of Corona Virus - The Reeling and Revival". Queries from the participants were answered by the resource person at the end of his presentation.

Resource person of the Second Technical session prof. K. Bhanuprakash professor, SRM University, Sikkim. In this technical session prof. K. Bhanuprakash discussed on "Migrant Labor exodus amidst Covid 19 - Coup and Recoup". Queries from the participants were answered by the resource person at the end of his presentation.

In the valedictory session Dr. S. prabhakar thanked all the resource persons for providing time and giving presentation in the webinar. He also acknowledged the participants for their active participation.

Mr. P.S.N. Rasu, co-co-ordinator, IOTAC extended Vote of Thanks. The participants were given e-certificates for attending the national webinar. The programme was ended with national Anthem.